Hixburg

James Case, who was so badly mashed on Saturday of last week while helping load a car of lumber at Prospect, was rushed to a hospital in Lynchburg and is reported as doing as well as could be expected, having one hip and one leg broken and arms and hands mashed.

Roosevelt Jenkins, a colored boy about grown, living on the farm of Mr Ira Burrell had the misfortune to cut his thumb nearly off while preparing wood for a flue tobacco barn. Dr. Lukin was called and made the necessary stitches.

A boy, Frank Baker, while out squirrel hunting Saturday shot and killed one of the largest half red foxes I ever saw. Year before last foxes were so bad around my place we could scarcely raise chickens.

People here have commenced to make up the molasses crop and the yield is very good

The Farmers Union and neighbors have gotten in two cars of lime and expect to begin the seeding of wheat this week. With the out-look of the tobacco prices, not so good as last year, some of our best farmers have already arranged to substitute other things and will plant no tobacco the coming season, and if every farm in Virginia would raise more grain, hay and cattle and less tobacco we would have more and work less.

Now that this is such nice building weather we hope to see our River bridge under headway at an early date.

Mrs. J. W. Davis is in Richmond on a visit to her son, Mr. James E Gray.

There is an unusual large number of squirrels this fall, and the hunters are heard shooting in all directions and most all times of the day.

Mr. Eddie Harker, who has made his home in Baden, N. C., for some time was married last week to Miss Harelson, of the Old North State The writer extends congratulations and wishes their pathway through life may be strewn with roses.

The school at this place began last Wednesday.

Mrs. Evangiline Hawkins, of near St. Louis, Mo., has been here on a visit to her brother, Mr. R W. Bristow.

Mr. R W. Bristow and sister, Mrs. Hawkins, attended the Richmond Fair last Tuesday.

On last Saturday night quite a number gathered and organized the Cox-Roosevelt Flood club and chairman Marshall, strongly emphasized the good work and noble causes of the Democratic party and urged everyone present to take an active part and have every voter to be out on election day.

Miss Hildreth, of Washington, D. C., who has been on a visit to Miss Edith Harwood the past month returned to her home in the Capitol City last Friday accompanied by Miss Harwood, who will spend about a month in Washington.

Some fifteen or more women came out on the second instant to register but on account of not having their tax receipt with them all could not qualify to help the cause in the coming election, however, we will have about twelve new voters of the fair sex.

Democratic Clubs

Saturday, Oct. 9, at 7:30 p. m. the voters of the ten precincts in the county met and organized a Cox Roosevelt Flood Democratic Club at each precinct Reports from all precincts have not been received.

This club meets again Saturday, Oct. 16, 7:30 p. m.—48 members enrolled

Mr. S. L. Ferguson addressed the meeting.

Just received 1000 1 gallon Molasses buckets. Get them while they last.

To Protect Aluminum.

To protect aluminum and aluminum alloys from corrosion, says the Journal of Industrial and Engineering Chemistry, L. von Grotthuss has tried browning the metal electrolytically. By using this method, the aluminum may be bent or rolled without the coating. Aluminum thus treated was immersed in a salt solution for two months without showing the slightest trace of corrosion.—Chemical Round Table.

A better baby show and contest will be conducted at the Fair Friday from 11 to 12 under auspices of the W C T U Contest will be in charge of trained nurse and physicians Bring out the babies.

Mrs. Henry Silverthorn and sister, Mrs. John Hughes, have been visiting Mrs. E. A. Walton and Mrs. Hughes was taken ill on Thursday night and died Friday morning at 9 o'clock. Her remains were taken to her home in Lynchburg Saturday for burial.

Miss Corice Scruggs, of Hosmer, Va, and Mr. John T. Thomby, of Newton, N. C, were married Sept. 26 at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Jesse Inge Poplin. Mrs. Thomby is a grand-daughter of the late T. P. and Bettie Inge, of Appomattox county.

Will Hancock was arrested by Sheriff and company and brought here Saturday and was bailed for Dec. term court and Collie Tanner, a darkey, was also arrested, taken before John Tweedy who said he was not the man implicated in the illicit distilling for which John Tweedy was tried at the October term of the court.

Appomattox County Boy Makes Good Showing

The Editor has just returned from the State Fair at Richmond and saw the fine exhibit of the V. P. I. Dairy and Beef Herds, which is on the Fair Circuit of Virginia, in charge of Mr. Ernest G. Smith, son of our countyman, Mr. M. C. Smith, and who is a former graduate of our High School, and now a student at V. P. I Ernest has spent the summer and fall at F. P. I and has had full charge of the feeding, shaping and exhibiting of this fine stock, and has been in competition with some of the best breeders in the United States and in the world, particularly Canada. At Roanoke Fair the stock in his charge and care took 23 first, 11 second, 5 third and 1 fourth premiume, At Richmond they won first on Holsteins in every place they entered; took one first, two seconds and two fourths on Jerseys; they also took "Grand Champion Fat Steer," and the same steer took two other firsts, winning $175 in cash; on Angus they took one first and one second, and on Herefords took fifth. In all, at Richmond the stock in his charge and under his care took three "Reserve Champions," six "Grand Champions," 16 blue ribbons, 8 second, 3 third, 3 fourth and one fifth.

Ernest says he has received much praise on the way he handled the cattle and was closely watched by the other exhibitors, and as a result of his winning and showing he has been offered a fine position managing and handling a large dairy herd near Richmond, and was asked to name his price, with the assurance that they would hold the position for him until he finished at V. P. I. Congratulations, Ernest. We need a few more Smiths just like you to keep dear old Appomattox in the front of progressive farming.

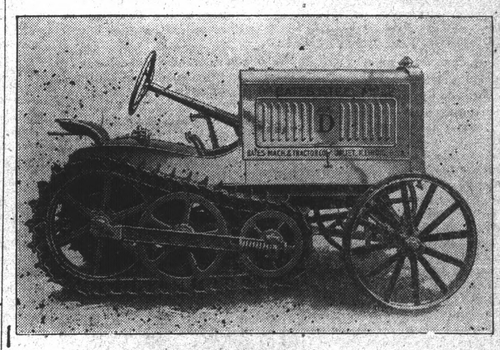
APPOMATTOX HARDWARE COMPANY

Every Inch of the Bates Steel Mule is Thoroughbred



The United States government by means of the Department of Agriculture, has been looking into the tractor question, and its bulletins clearly proves that the satisfied tractor owner—men who say that the tractor has paid—are men who own the BETTER CLASS of tractors. The successful man has learned years ago that he can't get something for nothing. No one can. The reason the BATES STEEL MULE costs more is that it is worth more. Skilled factory procedure, quantity production and the most modern Machinery enables us to save money at every turn, yet the BATES STEEL MULE cost slightly more in the beginning to build but considerably less in the long run to own. It's just another case where a seemingly higher priced article is far cheapest to own when you come to actually USE it.

The Bates thoroughbred quality comes not from mere claims, but from what's put into it. Every part that goes to make up the BATES STEEL Mule is put there by long field experience. There isn't a part that isn't time-tried and tested. There isn't a part that experience has'nt dictated the shape and size of; and in it all there isn't one superfluous part, nor one part that isn't capable of standing up under twice the strain it gets in actual use. These are things experience and practice have distracted. The BATES comes to you as a fulfillment of your desire for a tractor that will endure. Price is what we pay for a thing. Value is what we get out of it. Consider your tractor from what you will get out of it, consider how many working days you have when the ground is wet, consider the operations where you can not afford to pack your seed bed, and consider how constantly and economically they must be performed even in rush times, you will then see why the BATES STEEL MULE is the biggest value offerd in any tractor on the American market today.

We want this Bank to be different—

To breathe a different spirit, to reflect a different attitude than is said to prevail in some financial institutions.

We desire that this shall be a bank of willing, cheerful service—broad in its views, generous in its sympathies, helpful in its strength—conservative only when conservation is necesssry to maintain that strength.

We want the conscientious interest that we hold for the welfare of our customers to be the magnet which will attract and hold the patronage of a discriminating and appreciative public.

We desire that this spirit shall prevail in every department and be reflected in the helpful attitude of every employee.

This has been our endeavor in the past. It will continue to be our aim and purpose in the future.
